

Learn the latest science-based interviewing concepts.

SAVAGE
TRAINING GROUP

Intro to Science-Based Interviewing

October 28 - 30, 2026
Woodland, CA

Woodland Police Department
1000 Lincoln Ave., Woodland, CA 95695

Hosted by the Woodland Police Department

Instructors:

Max Garces, Fresno County District Attorney's Office (CA)
Joe Preciado, Ventura County Sheriff's Office (CA) (ret.)

$595/student

CA POST Certified: #1345-31453-26-002 - Plan N/A

Build practical investigative interviewing skills.

This practical interviewing course is designed for busy patrol officers and detectives. Students learn a structured, flexible approach to gathering reliable information from suspects, victims, witnesses and informants. They leave with practical tools and greater confidence for interviews in both patrol and investigative settings.

Whether you are a patrol officer from a small agency or a seasoned detective from a large agency, this course will help you approach interviews with greater confidence. Students learn through instruction, case examples, interview videos and practical exercises. Rather than memorizing a rigid script, they receive flexible concepts that can be adapted to the person, facts and needs of the investigation.

This course draws from current research, field experience and established interviewing practices. It was developed specifically around the practical needs of today's patrol officers and detectives.

This course includes skill development in the following domains:

- ✓ Suspect, Victim, Witness and Informant Interviews
- ✓ Strategic Use of Evidence
- ✓ Patrol and Investigative Settings
- ✓ Beheler and Miranda
- ✓ Apology Letters
- ✓ Behavior and Stress During Interviews
- ✓ Conversation Management
- ✓ Rapport Building

Space is limited so register today at SavageTrainingGroup.com

